2022 CSA OFFERINGS - FAQ

What's the difference between the Farmer's Choice and Custom CSA?

The Farmer's Choice share is a traditional CSA where the Farm team selects the share contents for you. The Custom CSA is a debit style share where you choose the contents of your share by logging into your Barn2Door account.

I really enjoyed my Willowsford CSA in 2021, which share is most similar?

The Custom CSA is the most similar. The primary difference between the 2021 shares and 2022 Custom CSA share is that you must login into your Barn2Door account and make selections to receive a share.

Can I swap items in the Farmer's Choice CSA?

No. But you do have priority access to Farm offerings! Offerings are available by logging into your Barn2Door account.

My spouse and I are adventurous eaters, but my kids won't touch most veggies, which share is the best option for our family?

The Custom CSA. This will allow you to pick and choose which veggies are in your share. You can always expand horizons by occasionally ordering something that's less familiar!

What types of food will be in the shares?

Contents will vary by season. The beginning of the season starts out lighter and steadily grows as the season progresses. See past share examples below and a list of crops by month on page three.
